

ANDREW HAMMOND

SHAREHOLDER

EDUCATION

B.S., 2002, Mississippi College

J.D., 2005, University of Mississippi School of Law

BAR ADMISSIONS

Mississippi

Choctaw Tribal

ADMITTED

2005

Andrew Hammond is a litigator who concentrates his practice in:

- Commercial & Consume Debt Collection
- Tax Sale Litigation
- Commercial Litigation
- Family Law
- Indian Law

He has extensive experience and counsels clients in the following

- Title Confirmation Suits On Tax Sale Properties
- Suits To Set Aside Tax Sale Purchases
- Removal Of Clouds On Title
- Analysis Of Title Of Properties
- Insurance Subrogation
- Divorce, Custody And Child Support Matters
- Criminal Defense

Andrew previously served as an attorney for the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians where he defended the rights of individual tribal members. While an attorney with the MBCI Andrew litigated numerous family law matters within the Tribal court system as well as throughout Mississippi. He has defended clients in criminal cases ranging from DUI to murder.

Andrew has been involved with property tax sales for more than thirteen years. He has litigated multiple title confirmation and quiet title suits as well as suits to set aside tax sales.

CIVIC

- Develops & Coordinates Education Programs For Choctaw Indian Tribal members
- Attends St. James Episcopal Church, Jackson, MS
- Member, Rotary Club of Jackson

PREVIOUS EMPLOYMENT

- Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians
- YoungWilliams, P.C.
- Mississippi Department of Human Services

PRACTICES

- Creditor's Rights
- Debt Collections
- Tax Sales